Dear All,

Dissemination and spread of child rights literacy among all sections of the society through various media are the important statutory functions of the NCPCR and SCPCRs. As part of this mandate, the NCPCR has prepared some IEC material to promote awareness on the protection and development of children.

2. A set of such material is enclosed for generating mass awareness and understanding of child rights and issues through social, print, electronic and other forms of media in your district. Please ensure that all stakeholders including children are benefitted by this campaign. Needless to say, any suggestion on the content of this material for improvement is welcome.
