State level Poster Designing Competition to Celebrate National Girl Child Day on 24th January, 2014

The Government of India in 2008, declared January 24 of the every year as "National Girl Child Day" with the objective to raise the consciousness of the society towards the girl child so that she can be valued and respected. Women Development and Social Welfare Department and Child Development Department has been taking a multi pronged approach to save the girl child and to create an enabling environment for girl child. The objective of all these initiatives is to work towards ensuring that girls are born, loved and nurtured and grow up to become empowered citizens of this country with equal rights. Women Development and Social Welfare Department & Child Development Department has approved that a state-wide competition amongst High School Children & College Students in the age group of 14-21 years be organised to suggest a new poster design on the theme "Kanyashree-Say No to Child Marriage". The poster should reflect the larger concern of gender equity and empowerment of girls in a rights based approach. Accordingly, a state Level Poster designing competition is being organised by the State Resource Centre for Women as part of the celebration on this occasion.

The objective of this competition will be to suggest a new mnemonic / poster on "Kanyashree-Say No to Child Marriage".

The prize winning and other excellent posters will be used extensively for raising awareness on this issue by the Government Departments.
